

Comparative Analysis Worksheet

Significance ←	Similarities	Differences	→ Significance
What does this similarity teach us or reveal?	Think about form as well as content: composition, space, scale; naturalism/abstraction, a/symmetry, dynamism/stillness, in/stability; materials		What does this difference teach us or reveal?

Comparative Analysis Worksheet

Thesis Workspace

What can this comparison teach us?

What does this comparison reveal?

Your thesis is your answer to these questions.

Review your notes on the reverse of this sheet. What themes emerge from your study of the comparison? How can you use your interpretations to answer the questions above?

Use this space to compose a 1-sentence thesis statement. Your thesis should state an explicit and specific argument (position/interpretation) about your works of art.

What evidence do you need to provide to support your thesis? What does a reader need to understand to agree with you?

List the most important evidence for your argument in the outline below:

A.

B.

C.

D.